II.1.4) Short description

Lot 1 - Homeless Prevention and Resettlement service

We are offering the opportunity for a provider to submit tenders for a multi-faceted service required for Sheffield. This contract will be for 5 years with break clauses at 3 years to enable an opportunity for review.

We are looking for a provider with significant experience of specialist domestic abuse support, experience of working with families at risk and their children and single adults with high and complex needs and housing advice and support.

The service will provide homelessness prevention and resettlement services, for people at risk particularly focussing on :

- Families and children at risk with parenting support needs, and support to children in these households
- Single homeless people with high/complex needs
- People in a domestic abuse situation where we require specialist knowledge on support

The service will work with people in all tenures but will prioritise those people in the private sector and most at risk of homelessness

24 hour accommodation for single men

We are now offering opportunities for a provider or providers to submit tenders for 2 accommodation-based services for homeless single men in Sheffield. Both services will be 5 year contracts with a break clause at years 2 & 4 to enable an opportunity for review.

Lot 2 - We require 55 single room bed spaces where a provider can offer 24/7 support including taking emergency referrals which could be out of hours and also in times when severe weather impact on services. We require a provider to have accommodation within Sheffield city centre and will work proactively with services in Sheffield who support vulnerable, complex and sometimes chaotic individuals.

Lot 3 - We require 66 single room bed spaces where a provider can offer support 24/7 to single homeless men who are vulnerable, complex and sometimes chaotic. We would want a provider to also support us at the time of severe weather when services are limited to this particular group of individuals. We require a provider to have the accommodation as part of this tender and to be situated outside of the city centre

These are the indicative contract prices(per annum):

Lot 1 - Homeless Prevention and Resettlement Service - £875,581

Lot 2 - Men's Hostel Including Emergency Beds - City Centre Location - £375,243

Lot 3 - Men's Hostel Out of City Centre Location - £306,150
