Contract 1. Training and Development Services for Civil Servants - Ruby Anderson

Reason for termination

Mutually agreed

The decision to terminate the contract has been mutually agreed upon by both parties due to evolving project requirements and strategic realignment. Both the contracting authority and the contractor have recognized that the current scope of work no longer aligns with the updated objectives of the public health campaign. This decision has been made in the best interest of both parties to ensure that resources are effectively utilized and that the campaign objectives are met through alternative means.⁶
